€ 329.000

Ref. 38601013-251

166 sq.m. | Bathrooms: 2 | Bedrooms: 2 | Rooms: 5

In the heart of Peagna, overlooking the church square and the sea, there is this semi-detached house, arranged on several levels.

Immediately recognizable by its recently restored façade, you enter from the small square and the ground floor is dedicated to the tavern area, laundry and cellar.

The first floor consists of a hallway with a double bedroom, very bright with a walk-in closet and a complete bathroom with shower and suspended sanitary ware.

Going up to the living room, large and living with kitchenette, we find all the rustic elements typical of the hinterland, with original natural stone walls of the period. Going out onto the covered terrace you can enjoy a spectacular sea view. A bedroom completes the second floor.

On the third and last level, the wooden beams of the ceilings guide us between a double bedroom with a breathtaking sea view and a large bathroom with a bathtub. Through the bedroom you exit onto another terrace with a 360 degree view of the hill, the olive trees and Gallinara Island.

The result of a total and recent renovation, it is a one-of-a-kind building that only historic villages can offer.
